SAFEGUARDING POLICY

Introduction

The Playground Theatre (TPT) adopted a Proactive Safeguarding Policy on 1st January 2023 in order to make a positive contribution to a strong and safe community. TPT recognises the right of every individual to stay safe and recognises our opportunity and our responsibility to make this happen.

TPT comes into contact with children and / or vulnerable adults through the following:

Delivery of Services:

Inclusive Arts Activities

Youth Theatre

Educational Workshops

Rehearsals and Shows

The types of contact with children and / or vulnerable adults will be:

Intensive contact (weekly sessions with vulnerable adults as part of Inclusive Arts/Youth Theatre)

Frequent contact with young people in Rehearsals and shows, and Educational Workshops.

This policy seeks to ensure that TPT undertakes its responsibilities with regard to protection of children and / or vulnerable adults and will respond to concerns appropriately. The policy establishes a framework to support paid and unpaid staff in their practices and clarifies the organisation's expectations.

Proactive Safeguarding:

We will use every means to establish workplaces and environments in which each person is listened to and valued.

We commit to looking at each individual member and examining their needs and triggers in order to establish a safe and nurturing environment.

We commit to embedding practices in every area and at every level of the organisation that not only protect vulnerable adults and children but encourage them to flourish.

We will use every means to establish workplaces and environments in which abuse is as unlikely to happen as possible. We commit to being excellent role models and communicating the value of this to all staff, volunteers and members.

We commit to extending the practice of proactive safeguarding, building it into all collaborative projects and assisting schools and community organisations to adopt it whenever possible.

Definitions

Safeguarding is about embedding practices throughout the organisation to ensure the protection of children and / or vulnerable adults wherever possible. In contrast, child and adult protection is about responding to circumstances that arise.

Abuse is a selfish act of oppression and injustice, exploitation and manipulation of power by those in a position of authority. This can be caused by those inflicting harm or those who fail to act to prevent harm. Abuse is not restricted to any socio-economic group, gender or culture.

It can take a number of forms, including the following:

- Physical abuse
- Sexual abuse
- Emotional abuse
- Bullying
- Neglect
- Financial (or material) abuse
- Discrimination

Definition of a child

A child is under the age of 18 (as defined in the United Nations convention on the Rights of a Child).

Definition of Vulnerable Adults

A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over who may be unable, in any given moment, to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or from being exploited.

This may include a person who:

- Is elderly and frail
- Has a mental illness including dementia
- Has a physical or sensory disability
- Has a learning disability
- Has a severe physical illness

- Is a substance misuse
- Is homeless

It includes any person who in the given moment does not have the capacity to make choices or decisions.

Responsibilities

All staff (paid or unpaid) have responsibility to follow the guidance laid out in this policy and related policies, and to pass on any welfare concerns using the required procedures.

We expect all staff (paid or unpaid) to promote good practice by being an excellent role model, contribute to discussions about safeguarding and to positively involve people in developing safe practices.
